About the University of Houston at Sugar Land

Founded in 1994, UH Sugar Land offers undergraduate, graduate and professional certificate opportunities for the students it serves. A campus of the University of Houston—a Carnegie-designated Tier One public research university—its 375-acre campus is located in Fort Bend County, one of the fastest growing and most diverse counties in the country, and accommodates more than 200 faculty and staff. UH Sugar Land works in partnership with Wharton County Junior College and Houston Community College.
